

Breadcrumb

1. Home
2. Current: Entity Print

Newsletter for our partner hotels

Newsletter on a regular basis with insider information only for our partner hotels

With our newsletter we provide information on all topics, which might be relevant for you. Our newsletter, which is exclusively reserved for our partner hotels, contains all information about the cooperation.

As a partner hotel you benefit from joint international marketing and sales for the city of Berlin. Our partnership offers the greatest possible variety in the use of all components and allows your hotel the ideal and individual mix of marketing activities and visibility, network and revenue - always personally tailored to your hotel.

With our newsletter we have an essential tool to inform you all about important news at visitBerlin. In addition we use it to provide you with helpful information:

- Things to know about our activities and events in all markets
- Information about the reservation system TOMAS and our packages
- Project updates and information on participation opportunities in the marketing pillars
- Market information and statistics
- Offers from visitBerlin or special offers from tourist industry players
- Advertising opportunities
- Competitions

- and many other important information about the partnership

Registration

With our newsletter you are always up to date, you will know what's going on in Berlin and what news visitberlin has to announce. If you are interested in a free subscription, please contact us.

Your hotel advisor

Ynske de Jong

Please note that the newsletter is currently still published in German.

about.visitBerlin.de