Press and blogger trips

You are planning an article about Berlin as a tourist destination? We will be glad to assist with on-site research. Jordana Goldmann and Gina Rogall your main contacts for organising press and blogger trips to Berlin.

We kindly ask you to read the following guidelines attentively and fill out the application form.

Please note the following guidelines for a successful collaboration:

- Please contact us at least four weeks prior to arrival. This is the only way we can help you to organize your trip appropriately.
- Please enclose a letter of assignment.
- We ask freelancer to send us at least two published articles that have been released within the last twelve months.
- Prior to a blogger trip we would need an updated media kit.

We gladly provide you with comprehensive information material for your research.

- Statistics
- Research texts
- personal advice
- press contacts

We will also assist you in creating your Berlin agenda. You will be given a Berlin WelcomeCard for the free-of-charge use of public transport, if you undertake to mention it in your article.

Arrival

We do not cover travel costs to/from Berlin or airport transfers. The German National Tourist Board will be able to assist with the organization of your travel arrangements (train or flight tickets). If necessary, we will provide you with a direct contact or pass on your request.

Accommodation in Berlin

We can assist you with your choice of hotel partner in Berlin and endeavour to obtain a press rate. The rate or a free-of-charge accommodation always depend on the medium and travel period and is at the discretion of our partner hotels. Generally speaking, we would ask you to avoid dates during large events or trade shows.

Filming in Berlin

TV Teams who wish to shoot in Berlin find comprehensive information here.
