Christmas Markets 2018

Berlin has over 60 diverse Christmas markets, and each in its own special way guarantees plenty of Christmas fun. Here is a small selection (opening hours may change!).

Christmas Magic at the Gendarmenmarkt

Historic Gendarmenmarkt square is an impressive setting for this touch of Christmas magic. One the Berliners' best-loved markets – with traditional Christmas goodies, upscale food stalls and a great selection of arts and crafts.

Gendarmenmarkt (Mitte)
26 November – 31 December,

Kurfürstendamm

Shopping

Berlin has a wealth of department stores, outlets, shopping centres, and boutiques on festively decorated winter boulevards making it so easy to find the perfect Christmas gift. Explore Berlin's amazing shopping landscape!

Around Kurfürstendamm

Kurfürstendamm is particularly beautiful in wintertime. KaDeWe, Germany's best-known department store, features 60,000 m² of high-quality goods and services. The gourmet foods department is known for its large selection of international delicacies.

U Wittenbergplatz

Bikini Berlin is more than just a mall: it is home to flagship stores and pop-up boxes instead of large chains. Here, young companies present their products at temporarily pop-up shops - so there's always something new to discover! Restaurant Neni also offers a great view over the city.

S+U Zoologischer Garten

Friedrichstraße

In addition to a large selection of books, audio books, and stationery articles, Dussmann's "department store of culture" houses the world's largest department devoted to classical music. The idyllic café is ideal for a shopping break.

S+U Friedrichstraße

French department store Galeries Lafayette lends the German capital a touch of French flair. Aside from fashion and cosmetics, this modern glass building also offers a gourmet selection of typical French specialities.

U Französische Straße

Potsdamer Platz

Be inspired by the Christmas decorations at Potsdamer Platz Arkaden! Enjoy gift hunting in around 140 shops or relaxing in one of the attractive cafés and restaurants.

S+U Potsdamer Platz

The Mall of Berlin is one of Berlin's largest shopping centres. With over 250 shops and cafés, you're sure to find the right gift for all your friends and family. The food court also offers a wide range of options for a relaxing break.

S+U Potsdamer Platz

Schloßstraße

The mile-long Schloßstraße is especially fine for a stroll. In addition to the numerous shops, the Das Schloss shopping centre promises something very special - gold, sculptures, stucco, and elaborate light projections in winter motifs over four floors, home to a multitude of shops. Here shopping becomes an experience for all the senses!

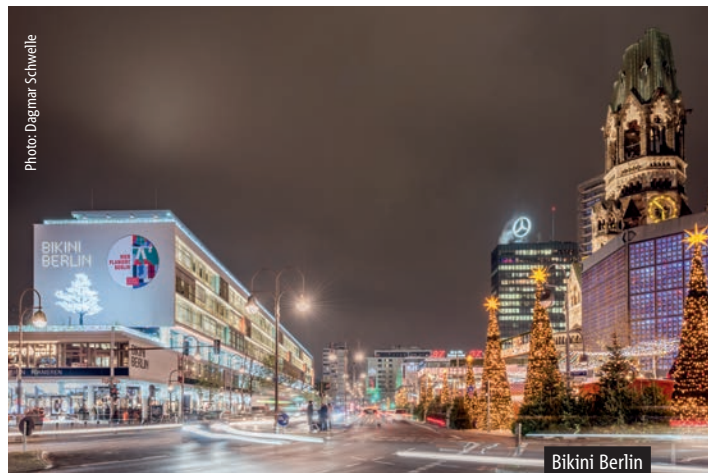

S+U Rathaus Steglitz

Boulevard Berlin is also located on Schloßstraße and features around 120 shops over 76,000 m² of elegant ambience offering everything that a mall needs. Here you find fashion shops in particular, but also many restaurants and cafés to relax in.

Designer Outlet

The Designer Outlet is only 30 minutes away from Berlin city centre. The 16,500 m² outlet is designed like a pedestrian zone in a small town and invites you to take a leisurely stroll. Designer brands are offered here at discounts of up to 70%.

Express bus from Kurfürstendamm

Did you know...? The many small shops and boutiques in Berlin's districts are as varied as the districts themselves. Shopping becomes a discovery tour! Do it like the Berliners and go for a stroll off the beaten track.

Although no water flows below this bridge in Friedrichshain, it offers superb panoramic views of the city, making it a busy spot away from the usual vantage points.

S+U Warschauer Straße

Berlin's backyards

The first apartment blocks with a series of courtyards date from the 1870s as Berlin became a city of a million people. Today, the yards are often beautifully designed and publicly accessible. At Heckmannsche Höfe, you will find cafés, galleries, shops, and even sweets from the Bonbonmacherei manufacturer and shop.

U Oranienburger Tor

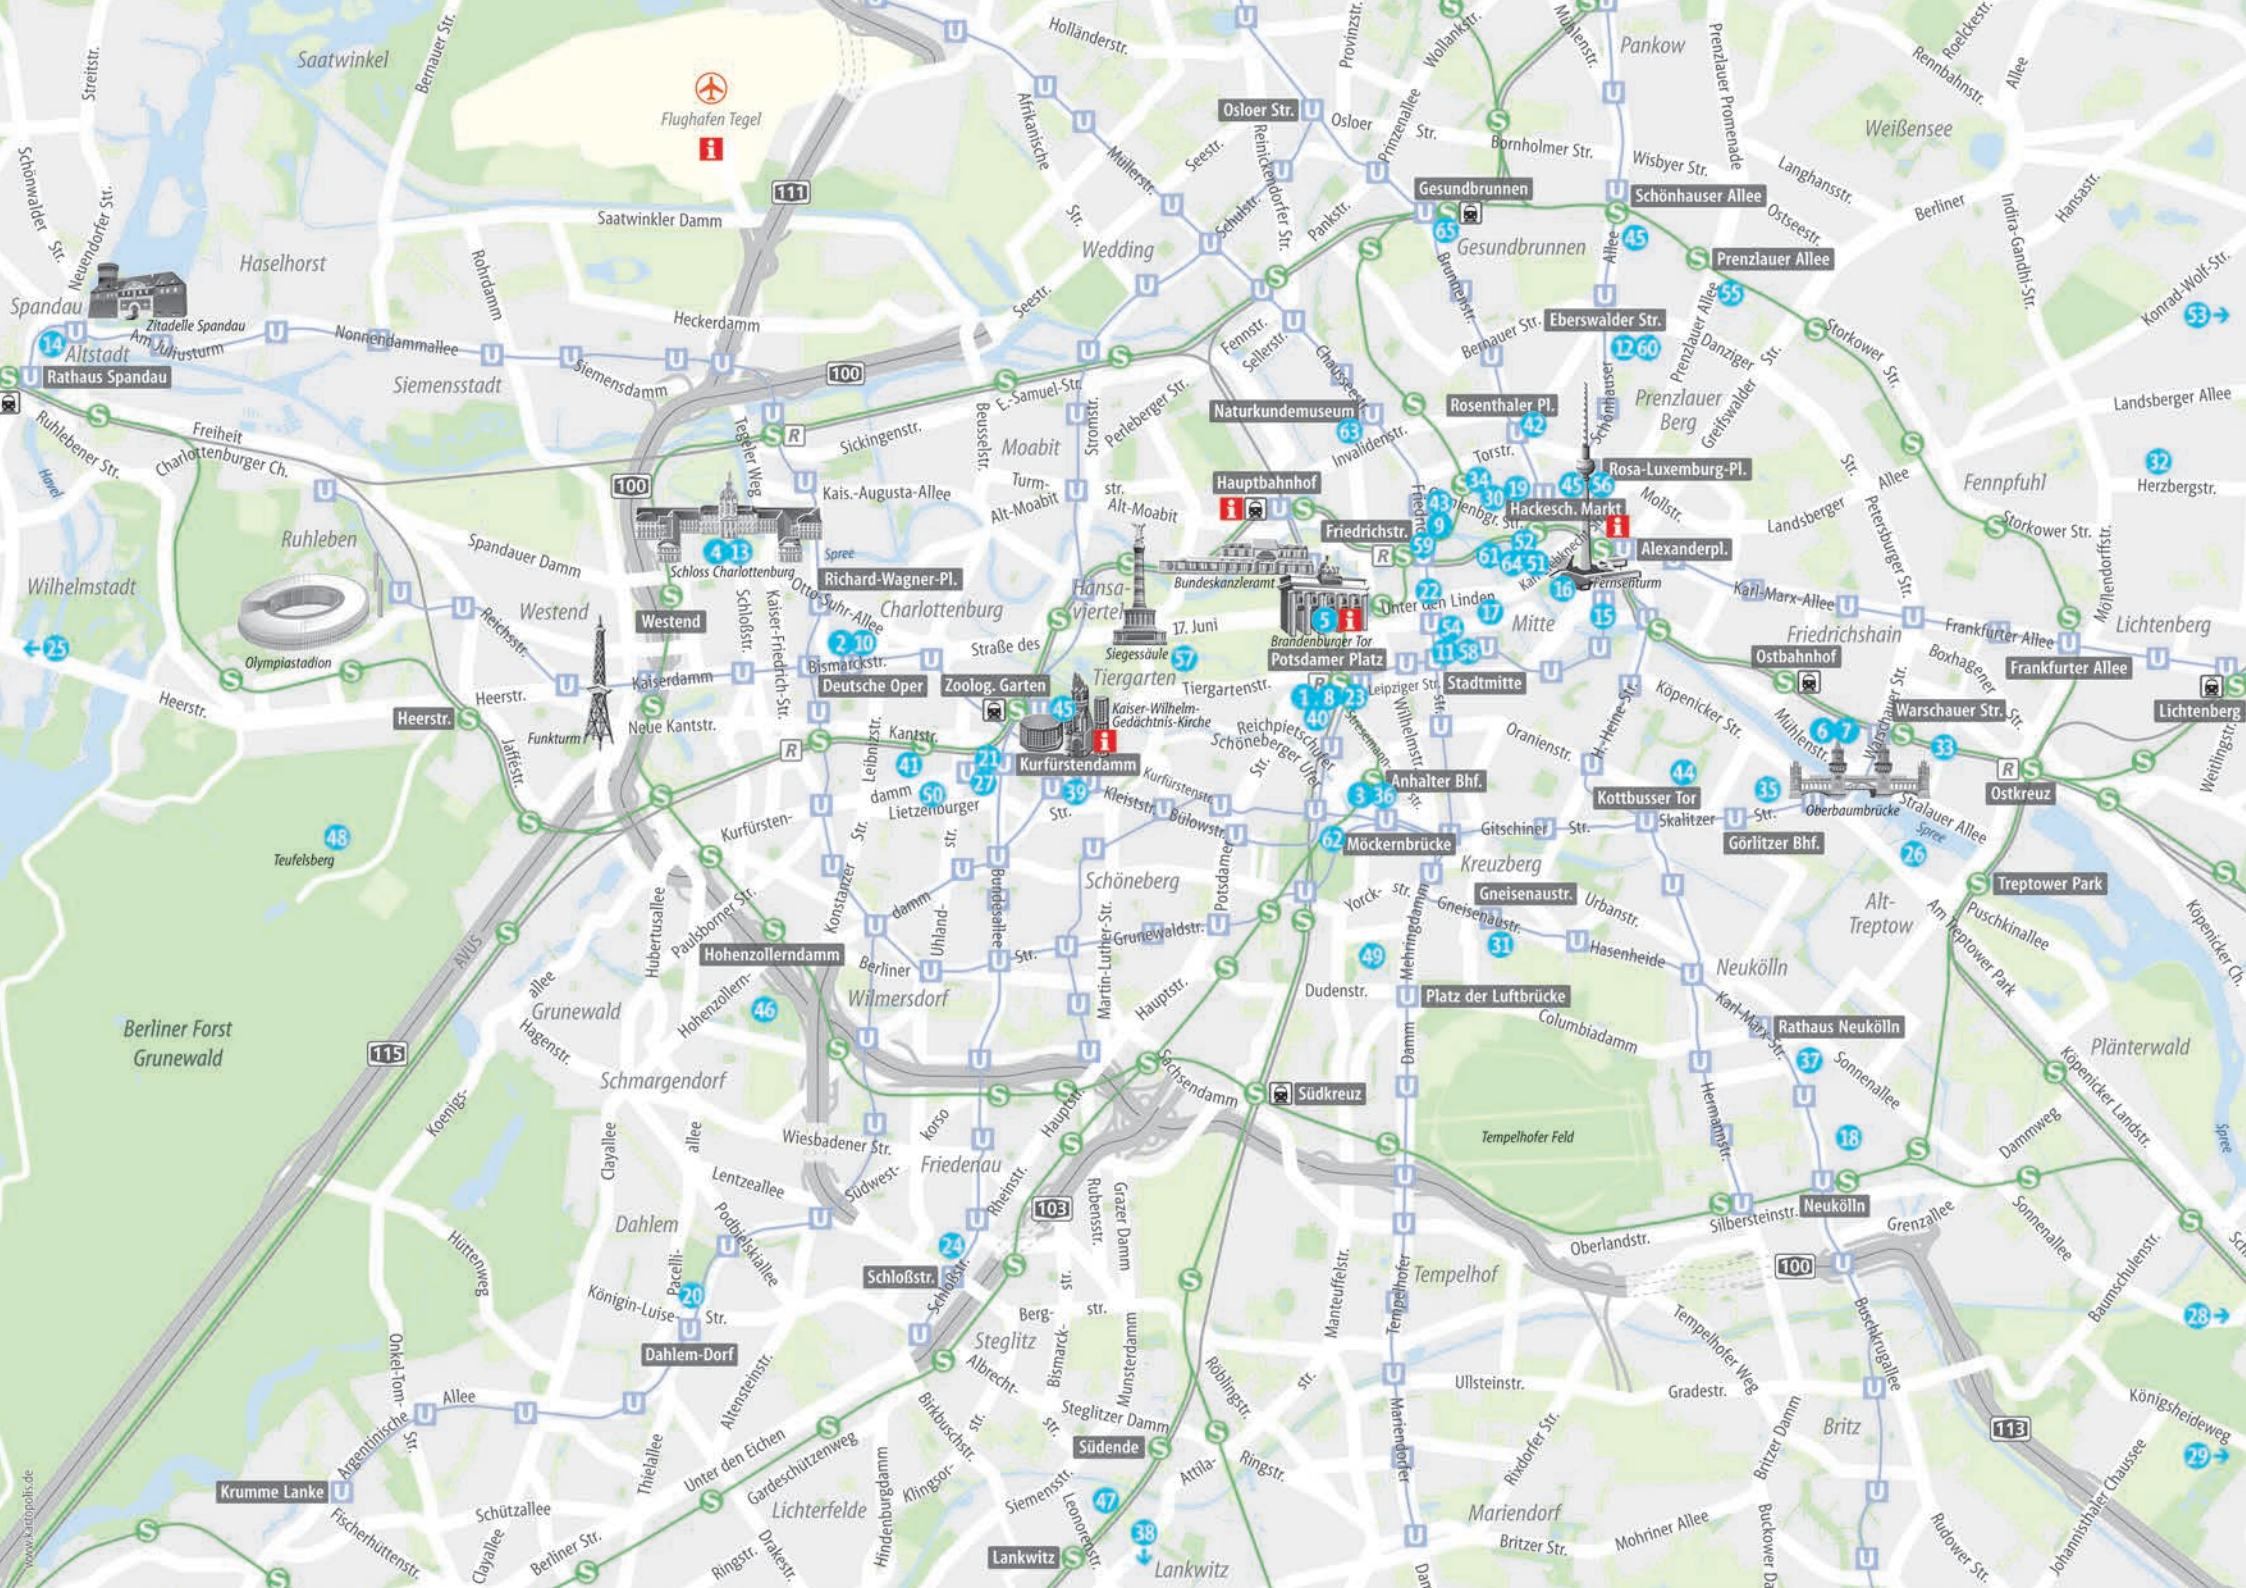

Markthalle Neun

Markthalle Neun in the middle of Kreuzberg has evolved from a once-forgotten corner into a popular meeting place for gourmets. Keep warm as you stroll from stand to stand and sample regional and international specialties.
