U5 – Berlin's new metro line

Sightseeing with Berlin's U-Bahn: The new U5 line from the Central Station across Berlin's Mitte district to Hönow includes three new stations conveniently located for many key sights in the city centre. The U5 also offers a fast, direct link from the centre to the eastern suburbs.

Hauptbahnhof

FUTURIUM

MUSEUM FÜR NATURKUNDE

HAMBURGER BAHNHOF

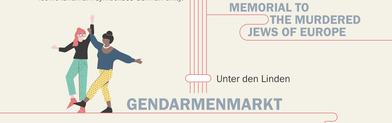
Bundestag

Reichstag
Seat of the German Bundestag: The modern dome on the historic building is open for visitors – and also offers a view into the plenary chamber

Brandenburg Gate
One of Germany's outstanding examples of neo-classical architecture, today this iconic landmark symbolises German unity.

Brandenburger Tor

MEMORIAL TO THE MURDERED JEWS OF EUROPE



Unter den Linden

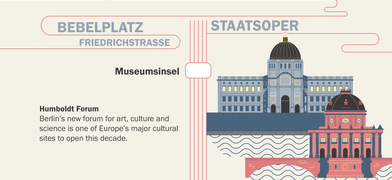
GENDARMENMARKT

BEBELPLATZ

FRIEDRICHSTRASSE

STAATSOPER

Museumsinsel



Humboldt Forum
Berlin's new forum for art, culture and science is one of Europe's major cultural sites to open this decade.

Museum Island
On an island in the River Spree, this UNESCO World Heritage site presents 6000 years of art and cultural history in five historic buildings.

BERLIN CATHEDRAL

FRIEDRICHSWERDERSCHE KIRCHE

Rotes Rathaus

ROTES RATHAUS

NIKOLAIVIERTEL

MÄRKISCHES MUSEUM

Alexanderplatz

TV Tower
Germany's highest building offers fantastic 360° views of the capital city.

KARL-MARX-ALLEE

Frankfurter Tor

STASI MUSEUM

Magdalenenstraße

Tierpark

Tierpark
Europe's largest wildlife park is home to over 10,000 animals, including Sumatran tigers and polar bears.

SCHLOSS FRIEDRICHSFELDE

Elsterwerdaer Platz

KIENBERG WITH CABIN CABLE CAR

SCHLOSS BIESDORF

Kienberg (Gärten der Welt)

Gardens of the World
Explore fascinating landscaped gardens from Bali, Japan, Korea and Europe, and take the cabin cable car to the Wolkenhain viewing platform.

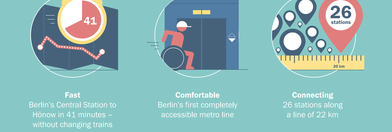
3 new U-Bahn stations

Rotes Rathaus
Elegant in black and white – an architecture inspired by the medieval town hall's historic ceiling vault.

Museumsinsel
Under a starry sky – the ceiling references Prussian architect Friedrich Schinkel and his stage setting for Mozart's Magic Flute. (Station to open mid-2021)

Unter den Linden
The 'science station' – the wall design explores the Anthropocene age, the current geological period with human activity shaping the Earth.

U5 Facts



Fast
Berlin's Central Station to Hönow in 41 minutes – without changing trains

Comfortable
Berlin's first completely accessible metro line

Connecting
26 stations along a line of 22 km

More information at visitBerlin.de/U5-metro-line

visit Berlin